

V A R S I T Y

G O L F

WITH FIVE OUT OF SIX of a 1939 National Intercollegiate Championship team returning, Stanford's highly successful golf season was anticipated and fully realized. The Card golfers burned up many a local course in both tournament and dual match play during their practice season. In four conference matches, two with California and one each with U. S. C. and U. C. L. A., the Indians ran up a total of 98 points to their opponents' meagre 10—which is ample proof of their strength.

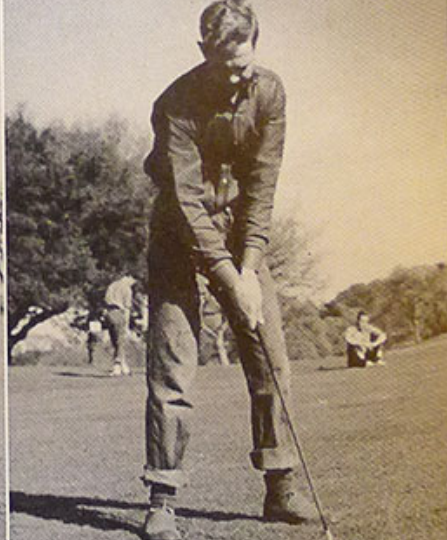

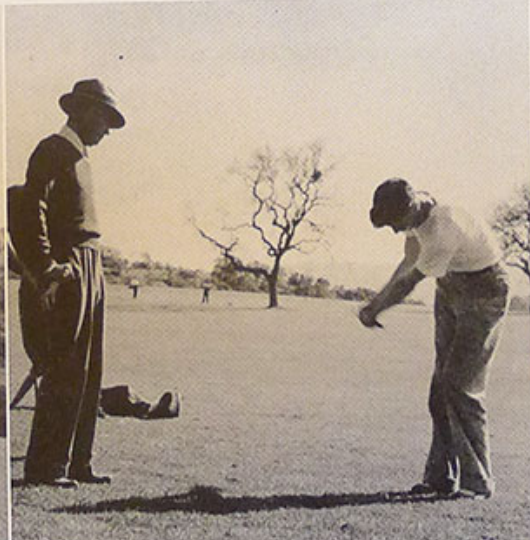

Back Row: Topham, Kennedy, Finger, Selix.
 Second Row: Smith, Jones, Leckie (mgr.),
 Showalter, Haslett, Stone, Berl, Rust, Hinds,
 Tatum, Wright, Bradley. Front Row: Twigg
 (coach).

Don Kennedy

Coach Twigg

Warren Berl

Jack Showalter

F R E S H M A N

G O L F

THE FRESHMAN GOLF TEAM joined its own class' tennis team in the rank of undefeated Stanford teams of the 1940 season. Paced by Greg Kelly and consisting of Jack Phillips, Dave Doud, Roger Hurd, Bill Wagstaff, Bob Glen, Ted Peterson and Jay Lanser, the team went through a 7-match schedule without a setback. After getting the feel of the Stanford course, the frosh started to roll. Their biggest wins were a $21\frac{1}{2}$ - $5\frac{1}{2}$ affair against San Mateo and their 19-8 victory over Cal's frosh.

Back Row: Phillips, Euphrat, Dowd, Lanser, Porter.
Front Row: Hurd, Twiggs (coach), McBrier.

