

Alf Burtleson, up-and-coming sophomore.

Pacific Coast Champ Phil Getchell.

VARSITY GOLF

Paced by Burtleson, Diffendorfer, and Rowley, each carding a 73, the Stanford golf squad rolled over California's linksmen, 19-8, in their first conference event of the season. In a previous match, Getchell paced the Cards to a 17½ to 9½ win over Fresno State, and while waiting for their southern trip to tackle UCLA and Southern California, the Card Clubbers defeated Cal Poly and Sunnyside Country Club of Fresno. Forbush, with a brilliant 69, and Diffendorfer, with a 70, were low men in the Cal Poly match, while Irwin and Getchell led the parade that walked over the Sunnyside crew on Stanford's plush-green, but difficult, par 72 course. Rounding out Coach Bud Finger's squad were Siebert, Luceti, and Walker.

Poised over the tee is Bill Irwin.

On the eighteenth green—Luceti, Diffendorfer, Rowley, and Pete Ealen (caddy).

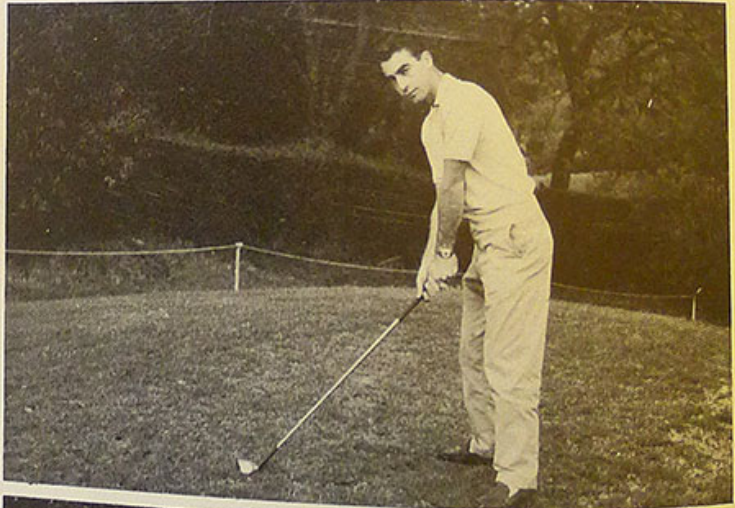

A 250-yarder for Alf Burtleson.

Golf

Ron Luceti, one of Stanford's varsity standouts, shoots for the first green.

Burtleson practices up on his putting.
