Facing some rough competition, the freshman golfers split their first two matches. A clutch 8 foot putt by Bob Ireland enabled the team to edge out a victory over Cal 8-7. Ron Diamond and Steve Zegura also turned in fine performances for the frosh. Coach Bud Finger noted that there were no outstanding stars, but that the team was highlighted by an all around ability on the part of the entire team.

Bud Finger
Coach

The Stanford Golf team, consistently ranking high in the collegiate circle, was no exception this year. Coach Bud Finger's linksters easily handled the San Diego Marines 22-5 and the Santa Clara Broncos 21-6 in the team's opening meets. Both contests were held on the Stanford course. Peter James, Peter Choat, Ralph Marron, Jeff Johnson, and Bill Secret all turned in excellent performances.
